ABSTRACT

Complains that his application of the Amildar for a loan ~~money~~ for the repair of the wells in his land, was endorsed to the effect that the loan could ~~not~~ be granted as the amount was not sanctioned by the Govt, and states that in 1886 he applied for a loan to repair the well in his garden S. No. 92; that after the inspection

23-12-02

H-appears from the endt (of the abstracting clerk ought to have but has not abstracted them) that the Dy Comr wrote to Govt for sanction for the loan to the petr, as the Land was garden & that the Govt either has not yet sanctioned or refuse Sanction of the well, a sum of Rs. 200/- was sanctioned and Rs. 100/- was adva that as the water was deep in the well, the repairs could not be done at once and the Builder seeing the amount kept unused, demanded the return of it and pet returned it with interest

That subsequently the petr. applied for loa as the well was quite de and was convenient to be repaired, and was replied that the money was not sanctioned by the Govt.

Prays therefore, tha the Semi-official loan may may be granted for the repairs of either of the wells nos. 191 & 192, which are situated in his lands.
